

BARRESENTIAL
EMBRACE CHANGE

BARRE or PILATES INSTRUCTOR

As a Barresential Barre or Pilates instructor, you lead group classes through individualized attention and creative, dynamic class programming. You become an expert in teaching sweat dripping workouts whilst keeping clients' best interests at heart – always keeping them safe and preventing injuries. Our Barresential instructors are proud representatives of the Barresential brand. They're charismatic, supportive, hands-on, encouraging and inspiring.

Reporting structure: Report to Master Instructor and/or Founder

Responsibilities

- Program & lead group classes and privates.
- Create/collaborate new programming ideas, following Barresential programming guidelines
- Manage Private Student Schedule through MindBody.
- Meet Class Fill Rate Requirements and other targets.
- Foster positive internal and external class reviews.
- Be a contributing Brand Representative: excellent and courteous communication, personify "Embrace Change" code
- Embody Barresential's values of communication, collaboration, and excellence.
- Know and educate our students on our product, our classes, instructors, workshops and retreats.
- Build friendships and value our students as human beings: be polite and welcoming to everyone; Familiarize yourself with the roster before each class.
- Contribute to team & company meetings and events.
- Contribute to a clean and organized environment.

Experience

- Experience of Barre and/or Pilates – ideally 100 hours of classes experienced
- Familiarity with Barre and/or Pilates and Barresential
- No prior teaching experience required
- Fun, kind, positive and self-confident
- Love for learning
- Go-getter, team player attitude with high engagement levels

Interested? Email your CV & cover letter to hello@barresential.com